Are you always exploring new artistic avenues or are you anchored in a particular style?

E.B.: I am always trying to explore new techniques and new styles. Although I am primarily a figurative painter and my main subjects are landscapes and bouquets of flowers, I also regularly like to express myself by creating abstract and modern works, sometimes incorporating a little collage, some writing, etc.

It is a sort of distraction, a recreation but also a way to evolve in my way of painting over time and to develop my creative possibilities.
